

This new bill is about as stupid as not being able to get local channels on your satilight. I think the the weather and traffic channels are very helpful and I don't know what my husband would do with out them(he is an over the road truck driver) You take away our channels you take a little bit of our safety. Thanks alot Stephanie Golightly